

Sports Program: The 2010 Voss Extreme Sports Week – Euro Cup Rafting and The Amazing Raft Race

www.ekstremsportveko.com

Euro-cup (R4) and The Amazing Raft Race.
Voss, Norway. Tues 29th – Wed 30th of June 2009

Voss in Norway is a centre for action sports and outdoor events. It's a small town located on the West coast, 100 km east of Bergen. Ekstremsportveko is the largest extreme sports event in the entire world. This summer will be the lucky 13th event in a row. Ekstremsportveko hosts competitors and spectators from all over the world, and is therefore a great mix of happy people gathered to enjoy the sweet atmosphere of this unique event.

Why come?

Norway is world famous for its rivers, and Voss hosts some of the best of them. This alone is reason enough for you to find your way here this summer. But It is also a perfect opportunity to put some final preparation in before the WRC and to have some fun in the second year of the very successful amazing raft race. On top of this you get to experience a week loaded with music, fun and frolics. Young people from all over the world gather to do what they love the most, perform their activity in epic surroundings of intense nature and pumping rivers. Come and join us!

How do you get here?

The closest airport is Bergen, Flesland. From Flesland it's a 1,5 hour drive by car. You can go by bus and train to Voss. From Oslo airport, Gardemoen it's a 6 hour train ride, listed as one of the most scenic in Europe! We pick you up at the Voss train station.

Where do you sleep?

We offer free camping. There are also possibilities for more comfortable accommodation. Tell us soon, so we can book for you.

Cost (subject to change as not yet fully confirmed):

1. Only rafting competition = 450,- Kr per person: Entry to festival tent Tuesday + Wednesday
